

In addition to a potential pension for life (the capital value of which we shall endeavour to ascertain) amounts of up to the following can be awarded : Level 1 - £570,000Loss of legs and arms; brain injury; persistent vegetative stateLevel 2 - £402,500Loss of eyes; loss of both legs above the kneeLevel 3 - £230,00Loss of both arms at or above the elbowLevel 4 - £172,500Loss of both legs below the knee; burns on 70% of the bodyLevel 5 - £115,000Loss of both feet; loss of both kidneysLevel 6 - £92,000Total deafness; loss of one handLevel 7 - £63,825Loss of both thumbsLevel 8 - £48,875Loss of one foot; infertilityLevel 9 - £34,100Permanent and inoperable cataracts in both eyes; complex injury covering all or most of the handLevel 10 - £23,100Loss of both big toes; loss of one kidneyLevel 11 - £13,750Fractured pelvis; high velocity gunshot woundLevel 12 - £9,075Partial loss of two or more fingersLevel 13 - £5,775Dislocated jaw; lung damage due to toxic fumesLevel 14 - £2,888Blast injury to ears; traumatic injury to genitaliaLevel 15 - £1,155Fractured noseWe'll also endeavour to establish what you'd get from the Criminal Injuries Compensation Board for similar injuries