

In addition to a potential pension for life (the capital value of which we shall endeavour to ascertain) amounts of up to the following can be awarded :

Level 1 - £570,000
Loss of legs and arms; brain injury; persistent vegetative state

Level 2 - £402,500
Loss of eyes; loss of both legs above the knee

Level 3 - £230,000
Loss of both arms at or above the elbow

Level 4 - £172,500
Loss of both legs below the knee; burns on 70% of the body

Level 5 - £115,000
Loss of both feet; loss of both kidneys

Level 6 - £92,000
Total deafness; loss of one hand

Level 7 - £63,825
Loss of both thumbs

Level 8 - £48,875
Loss of one foot; infertility

Level 9 - £34,100
Permanent and inoperable cataracts in both eyes; complex injury covering all or most of the hand

Level 10 - £23,100
Loss of both big toes; loss of one kidney

Level 11 - £13,750
Fractured pelvis; high velocity gunshot wound

Level 12 - £9,075
Partial loss of two or more fingers

Level 13 - £5,775
Dislocated jaw; lung damage due to toxic fumes

Level 14 - £2,888
Blast injury to ears; traumatic injury to genitalia

Level 15 - £1,155
Fractured nose

We'll also endeavour to establish what you'd get from the Criminal Injuries Compensation Board for similar injuries